

KLAIRE DOYLE

ARTS CURRICULUM VITAE

Klaire Doyle is an interdisciplinary artist based in the North of England.

Doyle's research predominantly investigates documentation, the monstrous feminine, the abject and the representation of these within Catholicism via performance and participatory practice.

She has been internationally acknowledged since 2014, including solo and group works in New York City, Venice Biennale, Moscow and Helsinki. Her breast painting workshop has been featured in The Real Housewives of Cheshire on itvBe! Klaire is also an associate artist at Cross Street Studios and an artist in residence at The Brick homeless charity.

Doyle holds a Masters in Making Performance and frequently works as a scenographer for theatre, site specific performance and exhibition.
